Zoro Is Named the #4 Best Workplace in Retail by Fortune Magazine and Great Place to Work®
A distinguished honor based on anonymous employee feedback

CHICAGO, November 24, 2021 /PRNewswire/-- Zoro.com, an eCommerce company that sells millions of supplies, equipment, and tools to businesses nationwide, has been awarded the fourth spot on Great Place to Work® and Fortune magazine's list of the Best Small and Medium Workplaces in Retail in 2021. It is the third consecutive year that Zoro has placed in the top five on the list.

"We're honored to be featured on this list for the past few years," said Kevin Weadick, President at Zoro US. "I really feel that Zoro is a special place to work, and that has everything to do with our people. I have not found a more passionate, smart, and genuine team who work incredibly well together to bring our Zoro vision and strategy to life."

Zoro earned this achievement through confidential employee feedback provided on a Great Place to Work® survey. The survey determines to what extent employees consider their workplace to be a Great Place to Work for All™ through topics including trust in leadership and the ability to reach their full human potential within the organization. Great Place to Work® analyzed the answers of more than 1.3 million U.S.-based retail employees from Great Place to Work-certified companies to compile the final list.

In 2021, Zoro was also recognized as a Best Small and Medium Workplace, Best Small and Medium Workplace for Millennials, Best Small and Medium Workplace in Chicago, and Top Midsize Workplace in Chicago. It's a proud feat as Zoro celebrates its tenth year in business.
